"Kya Kehna" is a 2002 Bollywood comedy film, directed by Pooja Bhatt and written by Pooja Halliker. It stars Abhishek Bachchan, Preity Zinta, Ranvir Shorey and Ronit Roy in the lead roles along with Sanjay Dutt, Tinnu Anand and Preeti Jhangiani in supporting roles. The songs were composed by Anu Malik while Raam Laxman wrote the lyrics. Kya Kehna (meaning "What will happen") had a worldwide release on 19 August 2002 and it premiered at Maratha Mandir Cinema, Mumbai. The two families live on the same street and one day Kya's father's car gets stolen by Sanju (Sonu Walia). Sanju is later caught by inspector D'Mello (Ronit Roy). After this encounter, Sanju begins to like Kya. Later, both Kya and Kunal go to their relatives' home in the mountains for the summer vacation where they meet each other for the first time. They instantly begin to argue with each other which leads to them hating each other. But in the end they start to fall for each other. They exchange contact numbers and promise to keep in touch when they go back home. Back in Mumbai, Kunal tells his father that he wants to marry Kya because he is in love with her. The father, Bhadri Pratap Singh (Ranvir Shorey) is a very strict person who wants his daughter to marry a rich man and not a poor guy like Kunal. He agrees but only if Sanju comes to them and tells them that he has money from his family business and thus will be able to support Kya financially.
